

- ◦
- GME Consortium Operating Principles
- ◦
- Appendix A - Internal Review Document Checklist
 - Most recent Program Information Form
 - RRC Accreditation letters and all interim correspondence with the RRC
 - Last internal review report
 - The program s educational goals and objectives in writing
 - Written information noting evidence of resident/fellows feedback to program director regarding the programs educational goals
 - Documentation of faculty participation in education of residents/clinical fellows
 - Examples of evaluations of faculty by residents/fellows
 - Examples of evaluations of residents/clinical fellows by faculty
 - Documentation of formal feedback of residents/clinical fellows performance
 - Example of resident/clinical fellow files
 - Policies established for the residents/clinical fellows such as:
 1. Selection, evaluation, promotion and dismissal
 2. Grievance
 3. Duty hours
 - Documentation of resident/clinical fellow curriculum in ethical, socioeconomic, medical/legal, communication skills, cost containment issues, research design, statistics, critical review of the literature, substance abuse and physician impairment, HIV/AIDS and other blood-borne pathogens.
-